"During late summer, our top-class expert juries in Cologne and Munich – as well as our pan-European online jury – met again with a hygienic concept and distance to discuss and evaluate the, compared to 2020, increased number of international submissions," says Corinna Kamphausen, CEO of Eyes & Ears of Europe. "For our 25th anniversary, our industry has once again shown great creativity, which makes me very proud and happy. Thus, we will see many high-quality, exciting, whimsical and entertaining entries at our award show, making it definitely worth taking part – online or at one of the planned watch parties.

The 23rd International Eyes & Ears Awards will take place during the EYES & EARS 2021 Special Edition.
